Two women and eighty men were

The ceremony of admission was held before the court in general term, Chief Justice J. Harry Covington on the bench. It was the first time that Justice Hitz had participated as a member of the court in admissions of new members to the bar.

Two young men who passed the recent bar examinations were refused admission. Heray C. Lank was not admitted because he has - not yet attained his majority and will have to wait several months. The barrier to the admission of H. N. Branch was his citizenship of the Republic of

The two women admitted are both from the North and are employed in the United States Treasury. Marietta C. Deehan, of Portland, Me., and Elleen Sweeney, of New York city, are the new feminine attorneys. The latter has been employed in the cus-toms division of the Treasury for four years. Miss Deehan is employed in the office of the supervising architect. She won the prize for highest honors at the Washington College of Law, from which she was

This was the reason Mr. Whipple gave today for refusing to discuss in advance specific phases of the in quiry. It is known, however, that the Bos ton lawyer will direct his energies first upon an effort to discover whe ther there was or was not such a leak, as has been charged by Thoma W. Lawson and others, before sidering the possible beneficiaries. This will entell his calling first for testimony from the officers of the New York Stock Exchange to revieww the fluctuations of the market of December 19, 20 and 21.
